- C. A majority of the Officers or a majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum for those bodies.
- D. A motion for expenditures from the floor at a regular membership meeting will be limited to a $5,000.00 maximum excluding a call for referendum.

-ARTICLE XIV-

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF LOCAL OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS

Section 1 – Nominations

- A. Nominations for President, Executive Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Vice-Presidents and Executive Board Members shall be in the month of September every third year. Notice of such nominations, including the office or offices to be filled, the time, place and proper form for the submission of nominations shall be given each member at least sixty (60) days prior to the Local meeting at which such nominations will be made.
1. The nomination of a person for the offices of President, Executive Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer shall also constitute the nomination of the same person as a delegate to the Union Convention held during the term of office for which the election is being conducted.
 2. Nominations and election of the Vice Presidents will be from the members working in the respective units. Should there be no member in that unit desiring to be nominated, nominations for that unit will be at large.
- B. Nominations and Elections for the Executive Board will be from members working for each bargaining unit the Local represents. One Executive Board member will be elected for a represented unit, if that unit has more than 50 but less than 500 members in good standing. Two Executive Board members will be elected for a represented unit, if that unit has 500 but less than 1,000 members in good standing. Three Executive Board members will be elected for a represented unit, if that unit has 1,000 but less than 1,500 members in good standing. One additional Executive Board member will be nominated for each 500 members, or major fraction thereof, above 1,500 in good standing.
- C. Nominations and elections for the Executive Board will be for members working in each bargaining unit. Should there be no members in a bargaining unit desiring to be nominated, nominations for that bargaining unit will be at large.
- D. The number of members in good standing in each bargaining unit shall be determined by using the official records of the CWA Convention immediately preceding the nomination of Local Officers and Executive Board Members.

Section 2 - Elections

- A. Ballots will be mailed (via U.S. Mail) to members within ten (10) days after the close of the nominations. Each member eligible to vote will receive:
1. Notice of election and instructions for voting,
 2. One official, unmarked ballot,
 3. One ballot envelope, and
 4. One return-addressed envelope with voter identification number or space for such a number, and space for a voter's name and address. Items 1 thru 4 will be mailed to the eligible voter at their last known address at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date when they must be returned in order to be counted. These items will be mailed 1st Class to assure prompt delivery and forwarding if necessary.

- B. All ballots, used and unused, must be accounted for. A certification to the exact number printed and mailed will be obtained from the printing source and/or Election Committee. Arrangements with postal authorities will be made to have all undelivered ballots returned to the Union, or the A.A.A. when applicable.

Envelopes will be imprinted with "BALLOT ENCLOSED" prominently.

- C. Instructions to members will include:

1. The cut-off date for counting the returned, marked ballots.
2. Mark the squares next to the candidates of your choice. Do not mark the ballot any other way.
3. Place the marked ballot in the ballot envelope and seal. Do not mark the ballot envelope.
4. Insert the ballot envelope in the return addressed envelope, place your name, address and I.D. number in the space provided, if not imprinted.
5. Mail promptly to insure delivery before cutoff date.

- D. Arrangements will be made with postal authorities not to release ballots except to authorized Election Committee officials in the presence of candidates or their observers, if requested by the candidates. In conducting the tally, election officials will establish the identity and eligibility of each voter, separate the ballot envelope from the return envelope (thereby preserving the secrecy of the ballot), and after all ballot envelopes are removed, begin the tally. Only election officials may handle the ballots and only in view of the candidates or their observers, if requested by the candidates. The only exceptions will be elections conducted by the American Arbitration Association.

Section 3 - Local Election Committee

- A. The nomination and election of Local Officers, Executive Board Members and delegates to the C.W.A. Convention shall be conducted under the supervision of the Election Committee. This committee shall have the authority and responsibility to see that nominations and elections are conducted in accordance with the Union Constitution, and these Bylaws, with reasonable opportunity for each member to nominate and vote for the candidate of their choice.
- B. The Election Committee or the Secretary Treasurer must preserve the ballots and other election records for at least one (1) year.
- C. The Election Committee shall also conduct any referenda submitted to the membership.
- D. A member shall not be permitted to serve on the Election Committee if the member is a candidate for any office.

- E. All questions concerning the conduct and challenge of elections shall be determined by the Election Committee, subject to the right of appeal to the membership of the Local.

Section 4 - General Provisions

- A. For the election of President, Executive Vice President, Secretary - Treasurer, all Vice Presidents and Executive Board units where there is only one board position, the nominee receiving the majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected. If no one nominee has a majority on the first ballot, the vote shall be taken again and the two (2) nominees having the greatest number of votes on the first ballot shall be the nominees on the second ballot. In Executive Board units where there are two or more positions, and Convention delegates, plurality* vote shall apply. *Plurality: The number of votes cast for a winning candidate if this number is less than a majority, but more than that cast for any other candidate.
- B. Only members of the Local in good standing shall be eligible to vote or hold office. Nominees must be members in good standing of this Local, for at least one (1) year and must have been active within the year prior to nominations by serving on a committee, as a steward or attending at least two (2) general membership meetings. Nominees must accept or decline the nomination and can only run for one (1) office per term.
- C. The term of office shall be for three (3) years.
- D. The Officers and Executive Board Members shall take office in the month of December.

Section 5 - Vacancies

- A. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Local President, the title and duties of Local President will be assumed by the Local Executive Vice-President.
- B. Vacancies in other offices shall be filled either by appointment of the Executive Board, subject to the approval of the membership at the next regular scheduled Membership Meeting, or by the election in the same manner as that required for regular elections, except for the time of notification. The notice for the nominations shall be given each member at least fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting at which such nominations will be made.

-ARTICLE XV-

STRIKES

The calling, conduct and termination of strikes affecting this Local shall at all times be carried on in compliance with the rules prescribed by the Union and Article XVIII of its Constitution.

Section 4 - Local Trial Court

A trial court of this Local shall be composed of five (5) persons who are members of this Local and not parties to the proceedings, and who shall be selected by the Local Executive Board.

-ARTICLE XVII-

RECALL OF LOCAL OFFICERS

Any elected officer of this Local may be recalled in accordance with the provisions of Article XXI and XXII of the Union Constitution.

-ARTICLE XVIII-

AMENDMENTS TO LOCAL BYLAWS

These Bylaws may be amended only by referendum of the membership.

-ARTICLE XIX-

REFERENDUM OF THE LOCAL

- A. The Local Election Committee shall submit any question to a referendum of the membership when directed to do so by action of the Local Executive Board or by action of a regular or special Membership Meeting.
- B. Questions submitted to referendum shall be determined by a majority vote of those voting on the question.

-ARTICLE XX-

FISCAL YEAR AND AUDIT

- A. The fiscal year of this Local shall be from October 1st of each year to and including September 30th of the succeeding year.
- B. The financial records of this Local shall be audited by a Public Accountant at the end of each fiscal year. The results of such audit shall be published in the Local's newspaper.

-ARTICLE XXI-

OATH OF OFFICE

Each elected Officer of the Local, after meeting all other qualifications shall be duly installed upon taking the following oath:

"I (give name), hereby accept the office of (name of office) Local 9510, Communications Workers of America, with full knowledge of the responsibility and duties of such office. I promise to faithfully discharge my duties according to the Bylaws and rules of the Local and the Constitution and policies of the Union. I further promise to give my successor in office all books and records in my possession. I shall at all times endeavor to serve my Local and the Union to the best of my ability, so help me God."

-ARTICLE XXII-

ADOPTION

These bylaws shall be adopted upon the approval of a majority of the members voting upon their adoption.
